When Jaeger-LeCoultre introduced the Memovox in 1950, they had created a wristwatch with alarm function which would in time, become an icon that with many additional new complications added over following decades. This Master Control Grande Memovox offers a perfect balance of form and functionality.

The silvered dial is exquisitely finished and enhances the polished areas of pink gold case. The dial features four auxiliary dials: a month display with windows for year, day of the week, moon-phase with 24-hour indication and date. The Memovox alarm is indicated by a small red-tipped pointer. The crown in the 2 o?clock position on the case winds and sets the alarm. The crown at 4
